

IELTS - International English Language Testing System is the most popular exam proving proficiency in English as a foreign language.

It is used both to apply to a university with a required high level of English proficiency and to apply for a job in a foreign country with an official English language.

IELTS preparation courses:

- have a duration of 60 hours
- held twice a week on Saturday and Sunday for 4 school hours per visit or 2 months.

The IELTS exam is of 2 types:

- Academic - corresponding to levels C1, C2 and
- General - corresponding to level B1.

Academic IELTS is required in universities as well as for applicants for change of residence in English-speaking countries such as Australia, New Zealand and others and applying for responsible positions such as doctors, accountants, dentists and others.

The exam consists of 4 parts:

- Listening-Listening
- Reading
- Writing
- Speaking-Speaking

The test assesses the candidate's skills from 0 to 9 points, and usually the level required is from 6 or 6.5 to 7 or 7.5 depending on the institution.
